The Public Relations Society of Kenya (PRSK) remains committed to the principles of transparency and accountability. We acknowledge that Article 35 of the Constitution of Kenya, the Access to Information Act (2016), and the PRSK Constitution 2016 collectively guarantee members the right to access information held by the Society. Providing this data is a key step in fostering an informed membership and advancing our shared professional objectives.

In line with the PRSK Constitution, the register has been made available subject to adherence to the statutory and regulatory frameworks outlined below.

Compliance and Data Protection Framework

As the custodian of member information, PRSK functions as a Data Controller under the Data Protection Act, No. 24 of 2019 (DPA). To ensure our mutual compliance with the law, please note the following conditions:

Purpose Limitation

The data provided must be used solely to enhance the objectives of the Society. Use of this information for external commercial, political gain or unauthorized solicitation is strictly prohibited.

Confidentiality of Personal Identifiers

Sensitive data—including National ID numbers, residential addresses, and financial/subscription histories—remains protected. Any attempt to triangulate or harvest this data without express consent is a violation of the DPA.

Legal Sanctions and Liability

Any unauthorized use of the register, including spamming, “dosing,” or the irregular disclosure, contact of members, may attract civil liability and regulatory action from PRSK and the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner (ODPC).
